BUILD 2 — STUDENT ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION

STUDENT NAME	COURSE & YEAR	SUBMISSION DATE	ASSIGNMENT STATUS
Adarsh Bairagi	IMCA 2nd Year	14 October 2026	Build 2 Completed

Part 1: Study & Academic Prompts

PROMPTS 1 TO 5

Prompt 01: Complex Concept Breakdown (Feynman Technique)

Tested: ChatGPT Plus

ROLE	TASK	CONTEXT	CONSTRAINTS	FORMAT
Senior Professor	Explain concept	Undergrad physics	Simple analogies	3-part layout

```
Prompt: Act as a world-class physics professor. Explain the concept of "Quantum Entanglement" to a first-year college student who has no advanced background in quantum mechanics. Use simple real-world analogies, avoid overly dense mathematical jargon, and keep the explanation strictly under 300 words. Format the response with: 1) Core Definition, 2) The Coin Analogy, and 3) Key Takeaway.
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
1. Core Definition: Quantum entanglement is a phenomenon where two particles become so deeply connected that changing the state of one instantly dictates the state of the other, no matter how far apart they are.
2. The Coin Analogy: Imagine slicing a coin in half (Heads & Tails) and placing each half in sealed boxes. If you open one box on Earth and see Heads, you immediately know the box on Mars holds Tails without opening it.

💡 When to use: Use this when encountering an intimidating concept for the first time during coursework reading.

Prompt 02: Active Recall & Socratic Quizzer

Tested: Claude 3.5 Sonnet

ROLE	TASK	CONTEXT	CONSTRAINTS	FORMAT
Socratic Tutor	Generate Quiz	Exam revision	1 question at a time	Interactive QA

```
Prompt: Act as an demanding Socratic exam coach. Help me study for my upcoming exam on Macroeconomic Policy. Your task is to test my knowledge using active recall. Context: I have covered Monetary vs. Fiscal policy tools. Constraints: Ask me ONLY ONE multiple-choice or short-answer question at a time. Wait for my response before evaluating and providing the next question. Format: State Question #, Topic, and Options.
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
Question 1 | Topic: Monetary Policy Tools
If a central bank wants to reduce inflation, which action will it most likely take?
A) Lower the reserve requirement ratio
B) Conduct open market purchases of government bonds
C) Increase the central bank interest rate (Repo/Discount Rate)
[Awaiting your answer...]

💡 When to use: Use for self-testing 48 hours before an exam to pinpoint memory gaps.

Prompt 03: Academic Essay Outline & Thesis Generator

Tested: Gemini 1.5 Pro

Research Advisor	Structure Outline	History assignment	Max 4 main points	Bulleted hierarchy

```
Prompt: Act as an expert Academic Writing Advisor. Help me draft a structural outline for a 1,500-word research essay on "The Impact of the Printing Press on European Literacy Rates." I need a clear thesis statement and a structured framework. Constraints: Limit to 4 main body sections, each with two supporting arguments and placeholder citations. Format as a nested bulleted outline.
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
Thesis Statement: The invention of the movable type printing press catalyzed European literacy by democratizing access to vernacular texts, standardizing educational materials, and dismantling religious monopolies on knowledge.
- I. Economic Shifts in Book Production (Lower cost per unit; rise of commercial print shops).

💡 When to use: Use prior to drafting long term papers to guarantee logical structure and argument flow.

Prompt 04: Dense Reading Summarizer & Synthesis

Tested: ChatGPT Plus

Research Analyst	Summarize Text	Heavy journal paper	Bullet points only	Executive Summary

```
Prompt: Act as an expert academic summarizer. Extract the core arguments, methodology, and conclusions from a research paper on Artificial Intelligence ethics. Context: I am preparing a quick literature review matrix. Constraints: Do not exceed 200 words total. Do not use fluff or introductory filler. Format: Executive Summary (3 lines), Core Findings (3 bullets), Practical Limitations (2 bullets).
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
Executive Summary: The paper evaluates algorithmic bias in healthcare diagnostic tools, demonstrating that training sets lacking demographic diversity lead to higher error rates in marginalized patient groups.
Core Findings: Diagnostic accuracy dropped 14% in underrepresented cohorts.

💡 When to use: Use when reviewing long PDF research articles to decide if they fit your literature review.

Prompt 05: Language Learning & Grammar Coach

Template #1

Native Language Tutor	Correct & Explain	Spanish Writing	Explain in English	Table (Error|Fix)

```
Prompt: Act as a patient Spanish language tutor. Review my short Spanish paragraph for grammatical accuracy, natural phrasing, and verb conjugation. Context: I am an intermediate student writing a diary entry. Constraints: Highlight errors clearly, explain rules in English, and keep feedback constructive. Format as a Markdown Table with columns: Original | Corrected | Rule Explanation.
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
| Original | Corrected | Rule Explanation |

Part 2: Work & Professional Tasks

PROMPTS 6 TO 10

Prompt 06: Executive Status Update Email

Tested: Claude 3.5 Sonnet

ROLE	TASK	CONTEXT	CONSTRAINTS	FORMAT
Sr Project Manager	Draft Update Email	Client deliverables	Professional, crisp	Subject + Sections

```
Prompt: Act as a Senior Project Manager. Write a professional project status email to a corporate client regarding the delayed website migration. Context: Launch is delayed by 4 days due to API integration bugs, but budget is intact. Constraints: Tone must be accountable, reassuring, and concise (under 150 words). Format: Subject Line, Current Status, Blockers & Mitigations, Revised Timeline.
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
Subject: Project Update: Website Migration Timeline Adjustment
Dear [Client Name], I am writing to share a brief status update. While core staging is complete, final deployment is rescheduled by 4 days to resolve third-party API stability issues. Budget remains unaffected...

💡 When to use: Use when communicating project delays or critical status changes to external stakeholders.

Prompt 07: Behavioral Job Interview Simulator

Template #2

ROLE	TASK	CONTEXT	CONSTRAINTS	FORMAT
Lead Hiring Director	Interview Practice	Product Manager Role	STAR Method check	Question + Feedback

```
Prompt: Act as an executive Hiring Manager at a Fortune 500 company. Conduct a mock behavioral interview with me for a Product Manager position. Context: I want to practice answering conflict-resolution questions. Constraints: Ask me ONE question at a time. After I answer, evaluate my response based on the STAR method (Situation, Task, Action, Result) before moving to the next question.
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
Interviewer: Welcome. Let's begin. "Tell me about a time when you had a major disagreement with an engineering lead on product roadmap priorities. How did you handle it?"
[Awaiting candidate response for STAR feedback...]

💡 When to use: Use 24 hours before a job interview to practice structured verbal responses under realistic conditions.

📌 REUSABLE TEMPLATE #2 (Work / Job Interview Practice):

```
Act as a [HIRING ROLE/TITLE] at [COMPANY TYPE]. Conduct a mock interview for the [JOB TITLE] position. Context: I want to practice [SPECIFIC SKILL/QUESTION TYPE, e.g., Behavioral / Technical / Case Study]. Constraints: Ask ONE question at a time. Provide 2-line feedback on my answer using [FRAMEWORK, e.g., STAR / Rule of 3] before asking the next question.
```

Prompt 08: Meeting Notes to Action Items Converter

Tested: ChatGPT Plus

ROLE	TASK	CONTEXT	CONSTRAINTS	FORMAT
Executive Assistant	Extract Action Items	Raw team transcript	Clear owners + dates	Action Table

Prompt 09: Executive Briefing & Report Synthesizer

Template #3

ROLE	TASK	CONTEXT	CONSTRAINTS	FORMAT
Business Analyst	Synthesize Data	Board presentation	Max 250 words	Exec Summary + KPI

```
Prompt: Act as a Management Consultant. Convert a 10-page market research report on Electric Vehicle adoption into a 1-page executive brief for senior leaders. Context: Executives need actionable insights. Constraints: Max 250 words. Focus strictly on market threats, growth drivers, and strategic recommendations. Format: Executive Summary, Key Drivers (bullets), Strategic Recommendations (1, 2, 3).
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
Executive Summary: EV adoption is projected to grow 22% YoY, driven by battery cost reductions, but grid infrastructure delays pose a short-term risk.
Strategic Recommendations: 1. Expand fleet charging; 2. Diversify supply chain.

💡 When to use: Use when preparing executive briefs from long industrial or market research PDFs.

📌 REUSABLE TEMPLATE #3 (Work / Executive Reporting):

```
Act as a [PROFESSIONAL ROLE, e.g., Senior Analyst]. Synthesize the attached text regarding [SUBJECT / PROJECT]. Context: Audience is [TARGET AUDIENCE, e.g., C-Suite Executives / Clients]. Constraints: Maximum length [WORD LIMIT], focus on [KEY FOCUS, e.g., ROI / Risks / Milestones]. Format: [FORMAT: e.g., Executive Summary + 3 Bullet Points]. Text: "[INSERT RAW TEXT]"
```

Prompt 10: Customer Conflict Support Email Draft

Tested: Gemini 1.5 Pro

ROLE	TASK	CONTEXT	CONSTRAINTS	FORMAT
Lead Support Manager	Escalation Email	Software outage	High empathy, clear solution	Customer Response

```
Prompt: Act as Head of Customer Experience. Draft a response email to an upset enterprise client whose service was interrupted during peak business hours. Context: Outage lasted 45 minutes; root cause was database failover. Constraints: Empathetic, professional, zero defensive language. Offer a 15% credit SLA adjustment. Format: Salutation, Apology & Explanation, Remedy, Closing.
```

Sample Output (Trimmed):
Dear [Client Name], I sincerely apologize for the service disruption experienced today. We recognize how critical uptime is to your operations. The 45-minute outage was caused by a database failover... We have applied a 15% SLA credit to your monthly invoice.

💡 When to use: Use when de-escalating tense client situations requiring high professional diplomacy.
